三二一

A dynamic illustration of a character named Mogari. She has short, spiky orange hair and a single visible blue eye. She wears a black witch's hat with a red circular emblem on the side, a black top with a large white collar, and a black skirt. She is holding a large, ornate sword with a red hilt. The background is white with blue starburst patterns and falling orange and red confetti. The character is in a dynamic, slightly crouched pose, looking towards the viewer with a slight smile.
